8. Admits that during the period 2004-2008, various bulk vessels were chartered from Phoenix Bulk to non-party NMT in connection with the shipment of bulk cargo from Brazil to various U.S. and European ports, but except as so admitted, denies knowledge information sufficient to form a belief with respect to the remaining allegations contained in paragraph “8” of the Counterclaim.

9. Admits that on or about 2004, non-party NMT was indebted to Phoenix Bulk for, inter alia, demurrage, which claim was resolved, but except as so admitted, denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief with respect to the remaining allegations contained in paragraph “9” of the Counterclaim.

10. Admits that subsequent to 2007, Phoenix entered into charter party contracts with the Defendant AMT, and that subsequent to 2007, Phoenix also entered into charter party contracts with non-party NMT, but except as so admitted, denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief with respect to the remaining allegations contained in paragraph "10" of the Counterclaim.

11. Admits that on or sometime after 2007, Defendant sought to enter the market to charter vessels, but except as so admitted, denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief with respect to the remaining allegations contained in paragraph "11" of the Counterclaim.
